

LOG (Adventures of Jesus Book 2)

Second in the remarkable new history of the adventures of Jesus, told in terms of his conversations with Abba, the one to whom he prayed constantly. Amazingly, Abba is not a forbidding, mysterious presence, but rather a friendly and firm sharer of the very purposes of reality. This is an epochal series, based on early sources like the Q document and the Gospel of Thomas. It understands how creed modified and changed the most likely realities of the life of Jesus. Seen as a conversation with Abba that continues to this day, the Adventures of Jesus gives you a living, accessible sense of the utter necessity of building human life on the values and hopes expressed here.
