

Anna: A Princess without a Kingdom

Princess Anna of Livia, just sixteen, cannot rule until she reaches the age of eighteen. After her father, the king, is brutally murdered, Anna must quickly flee her kingdom. The king's old counsellors conspire to eliminate her, wanting the throne for themselves. She flees disguised as a boy and joins an army in a faraway kingdom, overcoming many challenges and battles to stay alive. Meanwhile, soldiers from her own kingdom are sent out to hunt her down. Will she be able to keep her identity hidden from her enemies? Then Anna discovers a hundred-year-old secret about hidden sacred scrolls which would give her the power to take back her legitimate place on the throne. She undertakes a perilous journey in search of the scrolls all while falling in love along the way.
