

I am a Taste Champion!

What happens when young children follow Clarence Carrot and his friends on a taste race sampling a variety of veggies with distinct flavors, aromas and textures? Kids become true, confident Taste Champions just like Clarence Carrot! When Clarence Carrot challenges his friends Bonnie Broccoli, Tom Tomato, Jean Bean, Reece Cheese, Trish Radish, Ruth Grapefruit and Molly Mushroom to taste new snacks, children follow along and discover how much fun it is trying new foods, and how helping out in the kitchen leads to many delicious, edible possibilities. I am a Taste Champion is a must for every family! Just like in the workbook The Amazing Journey of Clarence Carrot, the colorful illustrations will steal the hearts of young and old. Even food skeptics will enjoy how health educator and author Chris Mahoney dives deep into the world of children ages 4 to 8 and invites little ones to taste healthy food and to move in a fun and playful way. Nine coloring pages with Clarence Carrot and his friends and a I am a Taste Champion medal at the end of the book gives the tasting experience extra motivation. Simple tips and tricks inspire how to prepare taste-friendly dishes. Who knows? Your picky eater might start to eat more vegetables.
