

Dot-to-Dot Barcelona: An Interactive Travel Guide

Whether you visit Barcelona, Berlin, London or Paris, or just travel with a finger on the map, these dot-to-dot activity books are perfect companions. By featuring a great selection of iconic attractions, it will take you on a journey through some of the most vibrant cities of Europe. You will not only read about historic places, in their past and in their present, but also see them in attractive pictures. Make active learning fun and take part in the re-creation of some of their traditional elements by joining the dots and coloring each drawing. Also included are 6 dot-to-dot postcards which you can send to your family and friends. Agata Mazur is an art historian and author who loves to explore new cities, regions and monuments. Being based in Germany, she likes to travel extensively. With this series of dot-to-dot activity books, both the author and the illustrator like to share their endless fascination for the world's most famous metropolises. Natalia Pakula works as a photographer, graphic designer and illustrator. She is currently living in France.
