

The Space of Time: A Sensualist Interpretation of Time in Augustine, Confessions X to XII (Supplements to the Study of Time)

From Robert Grosseteste to Jean-Francois Lyotard, Augustine's suggestion that time is a dilation of the soul (distentio animi) has been taken up as a seminal and controversial time-concept, yet in The Space of Time, David van Dusen argues that this dilation has been fundamentally misinterpreted. Time in Confessions XI is a dilation of the senses in beasts, as in humans. And Augustine's time-concept in Confessions XI is not Platonic but in schematic terms, Epicurean. Identifying new influences on the Confessions from Aristoxenus to Lucretius while keeping Augustine's phenomenological interpreters in view, The Space of Time is a path-breaking work on Confessions X to XII and a ranging contribution to the history of the concept of time.
