

Hercules First Six Labours

Ancient Greek Mythology is a rich source of material for fiction stories. For each major incident recorded in the ancient texts, over the years there have been dozens of different interpretations... Well now you can add a few more! Hercules First Six Labours presents six short stories that will entertain all ages from Mid-Teens up to Young Adult, and any ages above! Real names of people and places from the ancient writings have been used. Every incident used in these stories is actually recorded in the ancient writings. The incidents used in Hercules First Six Labours are not necessarily in correct sequence. Sex was always high on the list of topics in the ancient writings, and just has to be included for faithfulness. However, I have not gone overboard on this, but have used terms such as, made love until dawn, impregnated her with twin sons. There is nothing written that I would be ashamed of showing to my children.
