Earth Has No Sorrow

The much anticipated second novel featuring Lily James Connor, an Episcopalian priest whose passion for the truth forces her to confront evil-even when it dwells within her own church.A wonderful debut: amazing, graceful, satisfying.-San Francisco Chronicle review of The TentmakerThe Tentmaker made an exciting debut on the mystery scene-one that promised many good things to come, said the Cleveland Plain Dealer.Now Earth Has No Sorrow finds Lily Connor, tall and skinny, an unusual figure in her jeans, hand-tooled cowboy boots, and clerical collar, still in Boston, running her Womens Center downtown, and serving on an ecumenical council whose purpose is to study anti-Semitism in the Church. But when one of the council-sponsored events is disrupted by a sophisticated, vitriolic hate crime and a dear friend disappears, Lily is thrown into the middle of a dangerous game that will not only test her faith, but will put everything-and everyone-she knows and loves in jeopardy.In The Tentmaker, Michelle Blake gave us an unforgettable character-in Earth Has No Sorrow, shes done that and much more, combining a fast-moving plot and a fresh setting with an uncommonly rich depth of feeling.
