

The Greatest Home Based Business in the World

This book will introduce you to a world where you control your own destiny; a world where you can work when you want to work and not work when you don't want to work; a world where you can sleep till you're done sleeping. Part One will help you realize that the ideal business is the one that allows you to work at your own pace, your own rhythm and to live your own truth. Part Two is a fun to read allegory about a fictitious couple named George and Shirley Seeker. You get to follow them as they make the transition from having a job to becoming self-employed entrepreneurs. They meet a man called The Winner, who introduces them to the Accelerated Game of life. All of a sudden, their own lives begin to blossom as they share their new friend, and their new business, with family and friends. Part Three offers some powerful insights about Business Ownership and guides you in Starting Your Own Business.
