

Lo, How I Love Thee!: Divine Love in Julian of Norwich

This book is a new edition of the first published study of Julians theology and mysticism. In it the author explores Julians remarkable theology of love, the historical and biblical influences on her work, her important similarities to Eastern Orthodox spirituality, and practical implications for the spiritual seeker. Extensive quotations from her original Middle English are included, with close translations by editor Julia Bolton Holloway. This is the original study which helped give rise to Juliana as we know it today, and it remains the most thorough theological study of Julians mysticism in print.
