

The Blue Eyed Tri-Colored American Paint: A Brother and Sister for Baby

In the third book in this series, Baby has grown into her own as a beautiful mare. She is lonely with the passing of Queenie and Gizmo, and all of the changes occurring on Grandma Kinners farm, the six grandgirls all busy with school and growing up too, Mom and Dad have also been busy since Mom has written three childrens books, with book signings and seem to be spending a lot of time at Donnas ranch, Babys trainer, which Baby doesnt understand. Roper Star encourages Baby, that since he is aging she will need to learn be leader of their herd. Baby continues to learn more lessons as she makes a mistake in her responsibilities. Happiness returns to Grandma Kinners farm once again and loneliness disappears, as the herd increases and Baby becomes lead mare. A note from the author and a bonus feature included, A Magical Christmas Eve.
