

Sarah and the Den

Sarah is a curious little girl who loves spending time with her best friend: her little dog, Asher. One day, the two decided to go on an adventure in a nearby patch of woods...crawling around trees and over logs, not knowing what they may find. Soon, the two came upon a deep dark hole partially covered by twigs and leaves. Sarah and Asher looked at each other with excitement, curiosity ---and a little bit of fear. What could this be? A secret passageway? A cave? Their own little hide-out? They both leaned in closer to see where it led. All of a sudden, they heard movement.. then a long, deep sound, like a growl! They jumped back, but their curiosity compelled them to move in closer and look again. Eventually, something emerged from the hole. Sarah soon recognized what it was, but Asher didnt and huddled up against her, shuddering in fear. Find out how Sarah and Ashers adventure turned out and proved that humans and animals can share the Earth in peace and respect for one another.
