

Making Money: Mystery Shopping

Introduction Do you like to shop and learn about new kinds of merchandise? Do you value your opinion? Would you like to make money helping companies improve their customer care programs? If youve answered yes to all three of these questions, you would most probably make a great mystery shopper? What is a Mystery Shopper? A Mystery Shopper is a person who is hired on a per store basis, to visit the store and pretend you are a real customer. The objective is to write an account of the shop you make and report specific details about your visit that is important to the company? A Mystery Shop can take between 15-45 minutes of your time and in return you get paid for your time. Usually a Mystery Shopper can make as much as $5-100 per visit. It all depends upon what company is hiring you. Want to learn more? Keep reading!

Mystery Shoppers Providers Association MPSA has been around for nearly three decades. Since 1998, they have been teaching Mystery Shoppers for the North American retail industry. MPSA is a recognized for its customer service training and its programs produce quality candidates for hundreds of companies nationwide. Presently they operate in four continents: North America, Latin America, Asia, and Europe. Since Mystery Shoppers have to work solo for most of their day, MPSA has been creating a professional attitude toward Mystery Shoppers so that Mystery Shopping can become accepted as a professional career. MPSA works with hundreds of organizations that rely upon their knowledge and expertise. They provide market knowledge as well as merchandising training. MPSA works with many companies that assist local companies with x-tra training or services to make their Mystery Shoppers more professional in reach and outcome.
