

Professional Baseball in North Carolina: An Illustrated City-by-city History, 1901-1996.

Hundreds of major leaguers including the Hall of Fames Hank Greenburg, Johnny Mize, Rod Carew, Carl Yastrzemski and Joe Morgan got their starts in North Carolina, where baseball has been a fixture in the state for nearly 100 years in Charlotte and Durham (whose Bulls were in the 1988 film Bull Durham) as well as Red Springs and Snow Hill. Following an historical statewide overview, year by year summaries and histories are provided for each of the 72 towns, from Albemarle to Zebulon. Notable players and club records are listed for each year, and the causes for the rise and fall of baseball in the different towns are discussed. Biographies of 20 prominent minor leaguers are included, as is an appendix of nearly 2,000 major leaguers who played for a North Carolina team. The states Negro League and textile league histories are also related.
