

Storm Runner is a mouse-colored paint mare that is captured from the wild herd by Little Owl, a Cheyenne woman who learns to be a warrior. Little Owl trains the beautiful mare to be a buffalo runner, and a war horse. During a battle against the Crow, Storm Runner is stolen and Little Owl takes a long, exciting journey to find her fine horse. Along the way she meets interesting characters, such as Frog, a Sioux warrior, Jack Butler, a mountain man, and an artist who paints her. Her twin brother, Sparrow, is an artist as well, and he paints her story on buckskin, that survives and is passed on her descents. Suitable for 10-12 year old readers, the book gives a lot of Cheyenne history and lore, telling of a race of people that survived before the coming of the white men to Wyoming.
