

Wolfes Revelations

Hi, my name is Kenny Lorrington. Im sixteen years old. Six months ago I was just like you. An ordinary teenage girl, troubled and confused, trying to find my place in the world. But that all changed when I discovered I was adopted and traveled to Tarrant, to find out I was believed to be dead and came from a magickal bloodline. I am a Shifter. Neither woman or beast, but an animal, born wild and free. Now that I have come to terms with what I am, I run freely in the woods that had always called out to my soul, united with my brethren and bound to my soulmate. Life couldnt get better. Maybe not, but it sure could get worse. As I found out. Having totally skipped out on the last two months of school, I must now take summer courses at Fargo University to keep from repeating the tenth grade again. But more is going on at FSU than meets the eye. Cecil believes that the science department is using their summer students to get into Tarrant and close to the Pack. Now it is left up to me and my unique skills, to find out whats going on at FSU and stop our secrets from getting out in the open. But will I be able to find the truth and stop the scientist, before my parents find out the truth about me?
