

Mystery at the Baseball Hall of Fame: Who Stole Babes Bat? (MAXs Mystery Travels)

A humorous, educational mystery book for ages 7-9. When MAX, the world's most famous koala detective and his four sly sleuths (an obnoxious, lovable bird, a fearless squirrel, a karate-kicking kangaroo and a super-snoop mouse with stinky cheese breath) decide to take a fun vacation, they pack their bags for the Baseball Hall of Fame. But when they arrive, a mystery is waiting for them! Someone has stolen Babe Ruth's baseball bat and it needs to be found within 24 hours, before the President of the United States arrives! Follow MAX and his crime-solving buddies as they travel from Australia to Cooperstown, New York, to crack the case. Fast-paced, humorous and filled with engaging illustrations, this book is not just for boys! Girls, parents and teachers love it too! For younger children who need reading assistance, you can purchase this book in audio book CD format. The audio book CD has narration (may be turned on and off) and awesome sound effects. Check out MAX's other mystery books (Mystery at the White House and Mystery at the Statue of Liberty) plus his activity book series about government and civics titled Travels with MAX. Travels with MAX to Washington, DC; Travels with MAX to the White House; Travels with MAX to the US Capitol Building; Travels with MAX to the Supreme Court; Travels with MAX: How a Bill Becomes a Law; and Travels with MAX: How American Citizens Elect Their Leaders.
