

Unis Vers Cythere: Aesthetic-Political Investigations in Polis Thought and the Artful Firm

Unis vers Cythere forms a continuation of the ongoing project to disseminate a new faculty of thought called cytherics, which is defined as the sighting and siting of aphrodisian - aesthetic-erotic - environments. The first part of the book proposes polis thought as a subdivision within political theory that would encourage attention to the polis element - the openness furnished by the classical polis/city for disputation, rhetoric, performance, ceremony, and the carnivalesque - for political theory and history. The second part develops the concept of the artful firm, derived from contemporary firm and management theories on the art firm and artful making, to argue for further convergences in related areas of aesthetics and management. Unis vers Cythere begins and ends with essays on the ancient Hellenic twin concepts of thalassocracy and teatrocracy in their relations to orthodox contemporary theories of political democracy.
