

What a Trip!: (Around the World in Eighty Days) (Cracked Classics Book 3)

Devin and Frankie sign up for a dangerous adventure when they make a bet that they can race across the globe in only eighty days. On a class trip to the library, best friends Devin and Frankie discover that the librarian has hired someone to fix the broken security gates. There's only one problem: these zapper gates have the magical power to transport people into books. If they're fixed, how are Devin and Frankie supposed to pass their English class? While trying to distract the repairman, the two friends accidentally drop a book between the gates and find themselves trapped in Around the World in Eighty Days! Follow Devin and Frankie on the journey of a lifetime as they circle the entire world, crossing oceans, plains, and jungles to save a princess and outrun an angry detective. It's a race against the clock, because if they don't finish the trip in eighty days, they'll be stuck inside the book forever!
